Instructions for Author

1. All material should be sent exclusively to the Majallah Al-Qism Al-Arabi. Articles which have been reported in a published paper or accepted elsewhere for publication should not be submitted.

2. Article must be typed in on one side of single A4 or letter size paper. Three copies of each article must be submitted, in addition to an electronic version on disk. Length of the article should not exceed more than 25 pages including references. Contributors' name, telephone and fax number (if any) and e-mail address must be given only on the cover page of the article.

3. The Paper should be accompanied by an abstract in English not exceeding 100-150 words. It should be embedded in simple language setting forth objective of the study and the results achieved.

4. References should be normally given at the end of the text following APA Publication Manual (5th ed., 2001).

5. Each paper is sent to two referees for blind peer review. Based on their recommendations, the editor decides the acceptance, rejection or reviewing of the paper

6. Contributors receive one copy of the Magazine in addition to 20 off-prints