

The Journal of English Language Teaching and Learning is a peer-reviewed journal published biquartely by University of Tabriz, Tabriz, Iran. All Iranians and foreign authors are warmly invited to submit their unpublished works which are not also under review in any other journal. This journal publishes articles in different areas of Applied Linguistics, but preference is given to papers related to theoretical and practical issues in EFL/ESL teaching and learning.

-Submission Guidelines

In order to submit the manuscripts, authors are requested to refer to the journal website: <http://elt.tabrizu.ac.ir>. Firstly, authors need to register according to the given instructions in the website. Once registered, the authors will receive an e-mail containing their passwords. Then, they can sign in and submit their manuscripts by following the given steps.

-Manuscript Preparation

The manuscript files must be submitted in MS Word with the length of ۳۰۰۰-۷۰۰۰ words. The submitted manuscripts must follow the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA), sixth edition. Authors are also required to submit two MS Word files. The first one includes the following: manuscript title, author name(s), affiliation, department, e-mail address, and phone number (office or cell phone). In case of a multiple authored manuscript, the order of the authors and also the corresponding author must be designated. The second file includes no cover page or author affiliation, but it contains English and Persian abstracts, keywords alongside the main body of the article.
