

Guides for authors:

Authors are required to use the following format:

- A cover page should include the following items:
 - o Title: title should be concise and informative.
 - o Author name(s) and their affiliations: author(s) affiliation(s) should be presented below the name(s). Provide the full postal address of each affiliation(s).
 - o Email of corresponding author.
- Abstracts are required for all articles and should not exceed 200 words.
- Keywords: immediately after the abstract. Provide a maximum of 6 keywords.
- Classification Codes: please provide up to 6 JEL codes. The codes may be accessed at: www.aeaweb.org/journal/elclasjn.html
- Articles should not exceed 7000 words.
- Footnotes should be embedded and numbered consecutively.
- Number tables consecutively in accordance with their appearance in the text. Place footnotes to tables below the table body and indicate them with superscript lowercase letters.
- Reference to articles and books in the text: For citations in the text, use author last name(s) only followed by year of publication in parentheses. When listing a string of references within the text, arrange first in chronological order, then alphabetically within years. If there are four or more authors, refer to the first author, followed by et al. and the year. If there is more than one publication referred to in the same year by the author(s), use the year and a, b, etc. (example: 1997a, b).
- APA Reference style should be followed.
